Burien, WA 98148

Statewide experts will present topics to aid in the successful investigation and prosecution of violent crimes. The conference will include two days of general session presentations and one day of three breakout sessions. General sessions will include an in-depth look at case studies and topics that will include:

- ⇒ Case Presentations such as
 - * Ambush Murder of Seattle Police Officer Timothy Brenton
 - * Kitsap County Walmart Shooting
 - * Skagit County Shooting Spree
- ⇒ Forensic Anthropology
- ⇒ Person Tracking

This is a FREE training opportunity recognized by the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission. Drop-in attendance is welcome, but course credit will be given only for full attendance.

Online Registration begins September 1st at <http://www.govlink.org/conference/vcic>

Important Note! Please be prepared to present your law enforcement agency identification when checking in at the conference.

There will not be any general session presentations on Wednesday, only breakout sessions. Topics are subject to change based on interest and instructor availability.

This training opportunity is being presented through the partnership of the Washington State Patrol Crime Lab, Washington State Office of the Attorney General, Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission, Seattle Police Department, King County Sheriff's Office, and King County Regional AFIS Program.
