1	ye they allocate efforts appropriately.	4/19/2018 4:21 PM
2	I would like to see more work in helping organize jurisdictions to advocate on WRIA-8's behalf. In addition to external funding, restoring salmon requires action at the state and federal level.	4/19/2018 10:13 AM

12	Yes	3/30/2018 12:52 PM
13	The only problem I see is that projects only happen if the jurisdictions in question care about salmon recovery and initiate projects. So if a jurisdiction, say Kenmore, is not that in tune with salmon recovery, nothing happens there. Getting all the jurisdictions engaged is important.	3/29/2018 2:32 PM
14	I think they allocate effort, but we need to include development folks in the discussion. It's pretty much an echo chamber and needs to get buy-in from other departments to really create the change we need to see.	3/27/2018 4:39 PM
15	It is heavy in the tier 1 areas but those cities are the ones putting in for grant funding.	3/26/2018 11:27 AM
